Dear Families

It has been a fantastic book week at Cottons Farm. Throughout the week, pupils across the school have been learning about a book called Freefall. It is a fantastic picture book and the pupils have created some great work from it. As part of the week, we also had story time & hot chocolate, a book bell, pyjama day and our books & bonfire event (thanks to all who attended). The message of the week is to keep or start reading with your children before bedtime. It will make a huge difference to how well they do at school! If you need any support in getting started with reading at home, just come and ask us and we will be happy to help!

You are aware, parents evening letters went out this week. It is vital you attend this in order to find out about how your child is doing! If you cannot make the two evenings, please speak to your class teacher to arrange an alternative date.

Have a lovely weekend and see you on Monday

Christmas

Although it is still November, this is just a quick note to draw your attention to a letter that is going out about times and dates for our Christmas events! We hope to welcome you to them!

Attendance

EVERY day at school counts! Be on time at quarter to nine!

Class attendance for this week:-

Gruffalos — 95%

Fantastic Foxes — 90%

The Explorers — 97%

Parents Evening

Please ensure you are coming along to parents evening next week!

These conversations are incredibly important in ensuring we are working together with you. As I often say, you are the most important influence in your child's life when it comes to education so these conversations help to keep you informed of your child's progress.

We look forward to seeing you at your appointment's next week!
